

Oshkosh Public Museum Photographic Duplication & Use Fees

All digital images are for personal use only and may not be reproduced without paying the required fees in advance and requesting and obtaining a written Letter of Permission from the Museum. Appropriate staff must be notified of the payment method to confirm transaction completion. Fees are payable by check to Oshkosh Public Museum, 1331 Algoma Boulevard, Oshkosh, WI 54901, or credit card payment may be facilitated through Museum Store at 920-236-5799. After payment confirmation, the standard delivery time is within two weeks. The shipping and handling fee is a minimum of $5.00.

Fees will be charged for each image used. These fees are separate from, and in addition to, photographic duplication charges. All use fees are for one-time usage only and do not include permission for second editions or updated versions. Second editions, reprints, updated versions must apply for permission to reuse images, pay all fees, and obtain written permission from the Museum. No additional fees are required for printing in multiple languages of the first edition and must be counted in the circulation costs. This must be specified when seeking permission.

All responsibility for questions of copyright is assumed by the user. A copy of any publication, video, or computer software using images from the Museum's collections shall be donated to the Museum. A credit line must read: Courtesy of the Oshkosh Public Museum, Oshkosh, WI. All rights reserved.
