Welcome to The World of Jan Brett, a fun and educational traveling exhibit featuring original artwork that invites visitors to step into the stories of the admired children’s author/illustrator. Original artwork introduces cultures from around the world and draws visitors into the world of their favorite books. The World of Jan Brett is presented by the Oshkosh Public Museum in partnership with Jan Brett.

Paintings
The exhibit features over 70 original paintings from fifteen of Jan Brett’s bestselling books. Professionally framed and matted art shows the intricate brush strokes and great detail that goes into each book illustration. Featured book illustrations in this exhibit are from:

- Daisy Comes Home
- Gingerbread Baby
- Gingerbread Friends
- Hedgie Blasts Off!
- Honey...Honey...Lion!
- On Noah’s Ark
- The Three Snow Bears
- The Umbrella
- Who’s That Knocking on Christmas Eve?
- Cinders, A Chicken Cinderella
- The Animals’ Santa
- The Turnip
- Gingerbread Christmas
- The Mermaid
- The Snowy Nap

Graphic/Text panels
Full-color informational panels include the exhibition introduction panel written by Jan herself, and the artist biographical panel.

Painting labels
Graphic files for accompanying painting labels are provided for easy printing.

Jan Brett DVD
Listen to Jan Brett talk about her stories and inspirations as a twenty-minute DVD of looped interviews plays in the gallery.
