My Doll and Me: Home Front History October 15

Learn about life in the US during WWII, just like American Girl Doll Molly! Experience 1940s themed activities, music, games, crafts, and a snack. Kids are encouraged to bring their favorite doll or toy. Each participant has a chance to win the door prize: a new Molly doll! Tickets required, visit Oshkoshmuseum.org for more information and to purchase tickets. Made possible by the Museum Auxiliary

Talking Trucks with Tim Wright November 19

Join us to hear from Tim Wright and see objects from over 100 years of one of Oshkosh's most iconic businesses. A lifetime member and current Board of Directors Member for the American Truck Historical Society, and mentee of Oshkosh Local Historian Clarence "Inky" Jungwirth, Tim has delivered numerous lectures and created displays on the history of Oshkosh Corporation over decades of research and preservation.

Voices from the Home Front December 3

Immerse yourself in real 1940s lived experience by hearing firsthand accounts drawn from our Archives. Letters, oral histories, and photos from locals bring Home Front Oshkosh to life in unexpected ways.

More Than Rosie the Riveter: U.S. Women in World War II December 7

Explore women's contributions to the Home Front effort during WWII from Ripon College Professor of History and OPM Board of Directors Vice President Rebecca Matzke.
