

THE KOEHN COLLECTION

Charles Koehn, born in Milwaukee in 1881, moved to Oshkosh in 1902. He was a founding member of the Winnebago County Archeological and Historical Society. Charles died in 1948. His collection includes items from the collection of Ernest Benedict, Butte des Morts, Wisconsin. Part of the Koehn Collection has been on loan to the Museum since 1929.

